Descendants of John LOWDER

Notes

1. John LOWDER

An LDS baptismal record for John LOWDER's grandson Jesse LOWDER in 1869 states that John was born in England. COUNTIES OF MORGAN, MONROE & BROWN, INDIANA, 1884, by Blanchard also gives England as John LOWDER's place of birth.

Hannah LOWDER's maiden name is unknown. However, she CANNOT be Hannah Ward who married John Lewder (or LOWDER) in Haddonfield Monthly Meeting, New Jersey, in 1724, as this Hannah was a much older woman who could not have had children born between 1758 and 1780.

Prior to 26 August 1780, when John LOWDER and children were received into membership in the New Garden Monthly Meeting (Quaker) in Guilford County, North Carolina, it is not known precisely where the family was located. It should be noted that in the 1850 Census, the birthplace of Caleb LOWDER (born 1760) was listed as New Jersey. The birthplace of Joseph LOWDER (born 1766) was listed as South Carolina, in his son Jesse's 1869 LDS baptimsal record. The birthplace of Samuel LOWDER (born 1772) was listed in the Duck Creek Monthly Meeting Minutes (Quaker) as Orange County, North Carolina.

According to Norman Dunten, a descendant of John's grandson Joseph LOWDER of Pike County, Illinois, an obituary of Joseph's daughter Anna LOWDER (died 8 Jan 1913) says that Joseph LOWDER's grandfather (John) came to America when William Penn was founding the city of Philadelphia. His mother conducted a truck garden in the outskirts of Penn's village and the boy carried produce into the town and sold it.

Many of the founders of the New Garden Monthly Meeting in Guilford County, North Carolina, were Quakers from the Philadelphia area. A John LOWDER is listed in JERSEYMEN IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR as a wagoner, which would have been acceptable service for a Quaker, but it is not known if this is the same John LOWDER as the subject of this genealogy. It probably is NOT the same John if Samuel LOWDER was indeed born in North Carolina in 1772, as this would indicate that the family had removed from New Jersey and/or Pennsylvania to North Carolina prior to the Revolutionary War.

Jesse LOWDER's 1869 LDS baptismal record says that his father Joseph (born 1766) was born in South Carolina. It is thus possible that John LOWDER brought his family to North Carolina by way of South Carolina, and if so, they may have sailed from Philadelphia to South Carolina.

HISTORY OF SANGAMON COUNTY, ILLINOIS, 1881, p. 1034, states: "John LOWDER, Mr. LOWDER's [George Washington LOWDER, born 1805, son of William and Margaret LOWDER] grandfather, was a soldier in the Continental Army. After the close of the war, he continued to reside in North Carolina, where he died. He raised quite a family of sons: John, Samuel, Joseph, Joshua, William, Caleb, Nathan, and Job." This source also says that the LOWDER family is German in original nationality, but that is contradicted by other evidence mentioned above.

Christ Church of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, lists the following baptisms of children of Ralph and Catherine LOWDER: 10 March 1721, son Robert (born 3 Mar 1721); 9 Mar 1727, daughter Mary (age 4 months); 29 [Dec] 1738, son Samuel (age 3 years) and daughter Susannah (age 7 months). Since John LOWDER, the subject of this genealogy, was probably born during this time period, and since his oldest child was named Catherine and one of his sons was named Ralph, it is speculated that perhaps John was a child of this Ralph and Catherine LOWDER of Philadelphia. John LOWDER might well have been born between 1727 (birth of Mary) and 1735 (birth of Samuel).

Another clue comes from C.T. Lowther's book MY LOWTHER FAMILY, 1979. It states that some of the descendants of Joel Lowther and Phoebe Ellis (who married 5 July 1738, First Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, PA) took the spelling LOWDER or LOUDER. Joel and Phoebe's son John is known to have married Martha Vastine and cannot be the John who is the subject of this genealogy. But this evidence is nonetheless suggestive of the hypothesis that the LOWDER name was originally Lowther.

The absence of Hannah LOWDER's name from several of the Monthly Meeting Minutes is not really a clue as to her religion or when she died. The Monthly Minutes often named only the males (or sometimes all of the children) without naming the adult females. Thus, it is very likely that Hannah was received into membership in New Garden Monthly Meeting in August 1780 at the same time as John and the children. She certainly was alive at this time, as Nathan was not born until December 1780.

It is not known why the 1790 Census of Surry County, North Carolina, lists John LOWDER as apparently living alone. It is possible that this census record is for John's son John (born 1762).

The 1793 Surry County indenture record for Nathan LOWDER identifes him as an orphan, but this designation was often used for children whose parents were unable to care for them. Thus, this does not prove that John LOWDER had died by this time. John LOWDER's dismissal from the Quakers in 1791 is perhaps a relevant factor here.

It is surmised that the John LOWDER, over age 45, enumerated in the 1810 Census of Washington County, Virginia, is the same John who is the subject of this genealogy, and no further record of him has been found. It is not known if the female, over age 45, in his household is Hannah, although no evidence indicates that John had any other marriage.

One LOWDER family not included in this genealogy is headed by Elijah LOWDER (born 1 May 1801, in North Carolina; died 26 Apr 1881, in Hancock County, Indiana), who may well have been a grandson of John and Hannah LOWDER. However, no determination has been made as to who Elijah's father may have been. A key clue is a July 1815 indenture in Harrison County, Kentucky, which states that Elijah LOWDER is the "infant orphan" of – (first name left blank) LOWDER deceased who has no estate. This Elijah married Leah Pock in Harrison County, KY, 22 Nov 1827, and his household in the 1850 Hancock County, Indiana, Census appears as follows (p. 254): LOWDER, Elijah 49 NC; Leah 43 KY; Adam F. 21 KY; Nancy A. 19 IN; Alfred 16 IN; James V. 14 IN; Elizabeth 11 IN; William A. 9 IN; Nelly A. 8 IN; Sarah J. 6 IN; John H.C. 5 IN. Information on this family came from Helen Powers and M. Kathryn Lowder (the latter reporting that Elijah subsequently married Elizabeth Mallory sometime after 1850).

Notes

3. Caleb LOWDER

The following children of Caleb and Ann LOWDER are listed in the Lick Creek Monthly Minutes, Orange Co, IN: Matthew (born 3-7-1784), Tabitha, Ralph, Joseph, Charles, Achsah, Catherine (born 11-6-1798).
Caleb LOWDER's will, written 7 Aug 1848, also mentions deceased son Nathan H.

Circmustantial evidence suggests that Caleb (Jr), Rachel, and Edith LOWDER were also children of Caleb and Ann.

4. John LOWDER

John LOWDER was apparently married by 1789 when his son Joel was born. However, nothing is known about the identity of this wife. It is presumed that this John is the same John LOWDER who married Mary Osborn in Randolph County, NC, 22 Sep 1803, but there is no PROOF of this. The administration of John LOWDER's estate in 1839 identified his widow's name as Sarah. Nothing futher is known about her.

Thus, it appears that John was married at least three times. Which wives were the mothers of which children are a matter of guessworth, but it appears that Joel, Elizabeth, Solomon, and Nathan were probably children of the first wife (unknown), while Nancy, John, William, and Sarah were probably children of Mary Osborn.

6. Joseph LOWDER

Joseph LOWDER's birthplace was South Carolina, according to his son Jesse's baptismal record in 1869. This suggests that John & Hannah LOWDER came from New Jersey (where Caleb was born in 1760) to North Carolina by way of South Carolina, and if so, they may have traveled to South Carolina by ship.

The only known child of Joseph LOWDER is Jesse. The 1800 Census date indicates that Joseph had another son and two daughters by this time. The other son is thought to be James LOWDER who married in Patrick County, VA, a year later (1816) than Jesse did (1815).

9. Samuel LOWDER

If Orange County, NC, is accurate as the birthplace of Samuel LOWDER, this indicates that John and Hannah LOWDER were in North Carolina prior to the Revolutionary War.

The name of Samuel LOWDER's first wife is unknown. There is no PROOF that Eber LOWDER (born about 1831) was a child of Samuel and Elizabeth LOWDER. The names of Samuel's other children appear in the Quaker records.

12. Job LOWDER

In the 1850 Henry County, Indiana, Census, Job's widow Sarah was living with Phineas LOWDER (presumably her son). A 13-year-old William LOWDER was also in the household, but it is not known whose child he was. Sarah would have been too old to have been his mother in 1837.

13. Joshua LOWDER

There is no PROOF as to who any of the children of Joshua LOWDER and Jane PHILLIPS are. However, circumstantial evidence strongly supports the accuracy of these listings, with the possible exception of the youngest child listed here (Nancy Jane).

In addition to the children listed here, there were probably others. The 1810 Census of Washington County, Virginia, enumerates two females age 0-10, and the 1820 Census of Bath County, Kentucky, enumerates one female age 10-16 and one female age 0-10. It is not known who these girls were.

The 1810 Census also lists two males age 0-10, and the 1820 Census lists two males age 10-16. It is thought that these two are Samuel and John. The 1820 Census also lists four males age 0-10. It is thought that these boys are probably Elijah, Joseph, William, and James.

In census records, Virginia is identified as the birthplace of Samuel, John, and Elijah, while Kentucky is identified as the birthplace of Joseph, William, and James. Since Elijah's age indicates a birth year of about 1811, while Joseph's age indicates a birth year of about 1815, it appears that Joshua LOWDER and family moved from Virginia to Kentucky between 1811 and 1815. The first tax list of Bath County, Kentucky, on which Joshua LOWDER appears is the 1817 tax list.

The 1830 Census of Hendricks County, Indiana, enumerates two males age 5-10. It is not known who these boys are. The 1830 Census also enumerates three females age 0-5 and one female age 5-10. It is thought that three of these four girls are Lucinda, Mary Jane, and Nancy Jane. It is not known who the other girl is.

The last Bath County, Kentucky, tax list on which Joshua LOWDER appears is the 1824 list. The earliest record of Joshua LOWDER in Hendricks County, Indiana, is an 1828 voter list (and Samuel LOWDER married in Hendricks County in 1827). The birthplace of Lucinda and Mary Jane LOWDER is consistently identified as Indiana, and their ages are consistent with Joshua LOWDER having been in Indiana by 1825.

However, the birthplace of Nancy Jane LOWDER is consistently identified in census records as Kentucky, and her age indicates a birth year of about 1828. This fact makes it questionable as to whether she was a child of Joshua LOWDER.

On the other hand, evidence to support the supposition that she was Joshua's daughter comes from the 1838 Morgan County, Indiana, indentures of both Lucinda LOWDER and Nancy Jane LOWDER. This evidence also supports the idea that Joshua LOWDER died sometime prior to 1838. The last record found for him in Hendricks County is an 1832 voter list.

14. Nathan LOWDER

Much of the information on this family is based upon circumstantial evidence, rather than concrete proof. It is not known for certain that the Nathan LOWDER who married Nancy Smith in Clay County, Kentucky, in 1807 is the same Nathan who had married Elizabeth Rowe in Washington County, Virginia, in 1801, and who presumably was the son of John and Hannah LOWDER.

It is also not known if there were any children from either of these two marriages. No census record prior to 1830 has been found for Nathan LOWDER. The 1830 Wayne County, Missouri, Census suggests that David LOWDER and Nathan LOWDER Jr (both taxed in Poinsett County, Arkansas, in 1839) were both born between 1815 and 1820 (as they are presumably the two 10-15 year-old boys in Nathan LOWDER's household). Since it is not known just when Nathan LOWDER married Sophia Stiltner, it is possible that David was a child from Nathan LOWDER's marriage to Nancy Smith.

There is no proof, in fact, that David LOWDER or John LOWDER (presumably born 1820-1825) were Nathan's sons, although the circumstantial evidence points strongly to this. According to Ernestine Loudder Bowden, a descendant of John Green LOUDDER, John Green's father was named John and this older John had a brother named David.

The journal of Sophia Stiltner's brother, Frederick Charles Stiltner Jr., states that the last that was heard from Nathan and Sophia LOWDER was that they were "on the banks of the Wabash." No date is given for this journal entry, but it does place Nathan and Sophia somewhere in Indiana (or perhaps Illinois).

Nathan LOWDER apparently died between 1840 (when he was listed in the 1840 Census of Poinsett County, Arkansas) and 1850 (when no husband was enumerated with Sophia in the 1850 St. Francis County, Arkansas, Census).

46. Jesse LOWDER

Some of the information on descendants of this family came from Grant Eastwood. Some can also be found in various LDS records. One such record says that John LOWDER (born 1 Dec 1835), son of Jesse and Zilpha LOWDER, played baseball with the Prophet Joseph (Smith) while living in Nauvoo, Illinos. There is a question about Zilpha's maiden name as the marriage record and War of 1812 Pension papers identify her as Zilpha Bullard, but the Family Bible identifies her as Zilpha Briggs.

59. Nathaniel LOWDER

According to the HISTORY OF SANGAMON COUNTY, ILLINOIS, 1881, William LOWDER had a son named Nathan who was deceased by that time. There is no PROOF that this Nathan/Nathaniel LOWDER of Wayne County, Kentucky; Rhea and Meigs Counties, Tennessee; and Dallas and Webster Counties, Missouri is William's son Nathan, but circumstantial evidence suggests a strong likelihood of it.

Much of the information on the descendants of this family came from Betty Hopkins.

61. George Washington LOWDER

According to the HISTORY OF SANGAMON COUNTY, ILLINOIS, 1881, p. 1033: "George Washington LOWDER, son of William and Margaret (Harris) LOWDER, was born in 1805 in Harlan County, Kentucky. When an infant, his father moved into Lee County, Virginia and settled in Powell's Valley. Here, when he was about ten years old, Mr. LOWDER's mother died, upon which event, his father for the time being broke up housekeeping and the subject of this biography found a temporary home with his aunt, Henrietta Kelley.

In 1828 he married Miss Alpha, a daughter of Michael and Anna Whisman. They had eight children, five living: Matthew, born 17 Jan 1830; William, born 22 Aug 1832; Mrs. Lavinia (John) Squires, born 14 Oct 1834; Mrs. Harriet D. (James) LOWDER, born 14 Jan 1838; and George Washington, born 15 Feb 1840. Clarinda, Gilbert and Mary A. died in childhood. Mrs. LOWDER died 24 Dec 1861."

66. Samuel LOWDER

Samuel LOWDER and Lucretia REYNOLDS apparently had a son and a daughter born before 1830 (as the 1830 Census of Hendricks County, Indiana, shows a boy age 0-5 and a girl age 0-5 in their household; and the 1840 Census of Fulton County, Illinois, shows a boy age 10-15 and a girl age 10-15 in their household). The identity of these children is unknown

Samuel LOWDER's wife, Lucretia REYNOLDS, apparently died between the time the 1840 Census was taken and 8 May 1842, when Samuel married Mary Wolf.

In the 1870 Census of Fulton County, Illinois, Samuel LOWDER's widow Mary (Wolf) had two children in her household who were not listed in the 1860 Census: Henrietta, age 17, and Sophia, age 19. It is not known if these were also children of Samuel and Mary (Wolf) LOWDER, who were unenumerated by the census-taker in 1860.

The parentage of Lucretia REYNOLDS is unknown. The only clues to her place of birth are these: Mary Ann Lintz in the 1880 Census gave Pennsylvania as her mother's place of birth (however, in the 1900 Census, her mother's place of birth was listed as Kentucky). George Washington Lowder in the 1900 Census gave Pennsylvania as his father's place of birth, which is incorrect, but could have been his mother's place of birth, which was left blank in the census.

In the 1830 Census of Hendricks County, Indiana, a female age 60-70 is enumerated in the household of Samuel LOWDER. Since Samuel's mother was presumably the female enumerated in the household of Samuel's father (Joshua LOWDER), it is surmised that perhaps this older woman was Lucretia REYNOLDS' mother. The 1840 Census of Fulton County, Illinois, also enumerates a female age 60-70 in the Samuel LOWDER household.

There was a REYNOLDS family from Pennsylvania living in Hendricks and Morgan Counties of Indiana at the time of Lucretia's marriage there to Samuel LOWDER in 1827, but she does not appear to fit into this family anywhere.

John,

Thanks so much for making your thorough research into the Lowder family available. I printed all of the data and put the output into a binder. I am sure this document will be very useful during research into one of the more obscure Lowder descendants.

I have a few changes:

#10 William Lowder died about 1835.
(He appears in the 1830 Greenup Co., KY census but does not appear in the 1840 census. His son, also named William, moved from Ohio with his family back to the homeplace in the mid1830s. The younger William and his family appear in the 1840 Greenup Co. census and some of the children were born in Ohio and others in KY.)

#598 Appendix M. Lowder should be Appington M. Lowder.
(His nephew, Herbert Willis of South Shore, KY told me Uncle App's real name. Appendix appears in a federal census.)

#599 Mary Ann Lowder should be Mary Alice "Mollie" Lowder.
(Her son, Herbert Willis, gave me this correction. She was always known as Mollie.)

#601 Harry Winfield Lowder should be Harry Washington Lowder.
(His grandson, Harry Robert Lowder, told me Washington was his birth middle name. He did not like Washington so used Winfield during his adult life.)

#605 Ettie S. Lowder was a granddaughter not daughter of George Washington Lowder and Josephine Thomas. Ettie was born in 1895.
(Ettie was the daughter of one of George's sons. The likely candidate was my grandfather, Harry Washington Lowder. Harry married Sarah in 1896. Mother of Ettie is not known. My cousin, Harry Robert Lowder, knew about Ettie and gave me this data.)

I have had several researchers ask me about Nathan Lowder. It seems this fellow was married five times in several states with several marriages being concurrent. I have a hunch at least three Nathans are being merged into one by researchers.

Keep up the good work!

Harold R. Lowder of Fort Wayne, IN

Greetings to all Lowder researchers,

I have completed my compilation of The Descendants of John and Hannah LOWDER (the Quakers), and it is uploaded to – http://home.kscable.com/jschunk/

Eventually I want to print and bind hard copies and place them in major genealogical libraries, but I would like to ask first for your input for any corrections and/or additions which you might have for these listings.

I have tried to document all data just as carefully as I can, and to see the documentation for each family, be sure to click on the many "Notes" links.

I realize this may not be a good time for many of you, but I have found that working on this material the past few days has been a comforting distraction from the recent tragedy.

Thanks to all who have shared so much Lowder data over the years. I am hoping that this compilation will be a benefit for future generations to come.

If you have any corrections, suggestions, questions, etc., please e-mail jschunk@skpub.com.

I look forward to your feedback.

Thanks again,
John

I have tried to document all data just as carefully as I can, and to see the documentation for each family, be sure to click on the many "Notes" links.

I realize this may not be a good time for many of you, but I have found that working on this material the past few days has been a comforting distraction from the recent tragedy.

Thanks to all who have shared so much Lowder data over the years. I am hoping that this compilation will be a benefit for future generations to come.

If you have any corrections, suggestions, questions, etc., please e-mail jschunk@skpub.com.

I look forward to your feedback.

Thanks again,
John
